Train-the-Trainer OVERVIEW

BECOME A FACILITATOR OF ELI'S AWARD-WINNING PROGRAMS

If you're a human resources, training, or other professional with strong facilitation skills and a commitment to building and modeling a civil, inclusive and productive workplace, consider becoming an ELI®-certified facilitator.

This three-day program consists of an interactive hands-on workshop where participants learn the foundation of ELI's learning philosophy, methodologies, course content, and in-person and virtual delivery methods. The certification is a blended learning experience involving some self-study pre-work and homework during the event, combined with three days of live instruction.

Participants in ELI's TTT (Train-the-Trainer program) will immerse themselves in our Civil Treatment Workplace Initiative for Leaders and Employees. Once certified, participants will be empowered with the skills and tools to help their organization align behaviors with its mission, values, and goals – and sustain those changes for the long term.

For sites with four or more candidates, on-site training sessions are available. All TTT participants will earn HRCI and SHRM credits.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

As a certified facilitator, you'll join more than 14,000 individuals in ELI's Certified Facilitator Community (CFC) who are helping their organizations build professional and collaborative workplace cultures.

Membership in the CFC provides exclusive, ongoing professional development and networking opportunities, legal and current trend updates, CFC-exclusive badging to elevate facilitator status, and other resources to supplement your culture transformation efforts.

Best of all, your certification is transferable should you change positions within your company or move to another organization.
