

Virtual TTT Program for Virtual Delivery

The ELI Train the Trainer (TTT) Program for Virtual (vILT) delivery is a general certification that prepares Human Resources, EEO, L&D, or other professionals to deliver virtual instructor-led Civil Treatment® learning experiences on a standard virtual meeting platform. The vILT TTT is delivered via two virtual sessions per day over three consecutive days for a total instruction time of 16.5 hours. Participants will also be assigned pre-work that may take 2-4 hours to complete and off-line activities that require no more than one hour of additional time.

This experience will focus on developing virtual facilitators who can teach one of the following virtual ELI learning solutions:

Civil Treatment® for Leaders and Employees	Civil Treatment® - Government for Leaders and Employees
Civil Treatment® Workplace for Leaders and Employees	Civil Treatment® Workplace - Government for Leaders and Employees
Building an Inclusive Workplace for Leaders and Employees	Professional Global Workplace™

OBJECTIVES FOR THE VIRTUAL CLASSROOM CERTIFICATION PROCESS

- Explore differences between in-person and virtual program delivery: how the delivery of the virtual Civil Treatment series of programs varies from face-to-face delivery, virtual platform and facilitation best practices, and other production considerations;
- Explore ELI program subject matter and identify ways to integrate standards from the organization’s Code of Business Conduct, policies, and other standards, into the participant experience;
- Practice combining ELI’s unique training philosophy, methodologies, and behavior models, with virtual capabilities, to deliver an engaging learning experience and support change in behavior for better business results;
- Discuss how to resolve technical and classroom behavioral challenges that may arise during facilitation;

CERTIFICATION PRE-WORK:
