

2027 Train-the-Trainer Overview

BECOME A FACILITATOR OF ELI'S AWARD-WINNING PROGRAMS

Build the personal expertise to strengthen your workplace culture, reinforce organizational values, and drive lasting behavioral change. If you're a human resources, training, or other professional with strong facilitation skills and a commitment to a civil, professional, and productive workplace, consider becoming an ELI®-certified facilitator.

This three-day, interactive, hands-on workshop equips participants with ELI's proprietary learning philosophy, methodologies, course content, and in-person and virtual delivery methods. Certification combines self-study pre-work and homework with three days of live instruction. Participants in ELI's TTT (Train-the-Trainer) program immerse themselves in our CTX Active Learning Initiative for Leaders and Employees. Once certified, facilitators can deliver consistent, impactful learning across their organization, align behaviors with its mission, values, and goals, and help sustain meaningful culture change.

For sites with four or more candidates, private training sessions offer flexible scheduling and delivery options, with opportunities to tailor content to organizational policies and priorities. ELI's Train-the-Trainer programs are pre-certified for SHRM and HRCI credits.

CFC MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

As a certified facilitator, you'll join more than 14,000 individuals in ELI's Certified Facilitator Community (CFC) who are helping their organizations build respectful and collaborative workplace cultures.

Membership in the CFC provides exclusive, ongoing professional development and networking opportunities, legal and current trend updates, CFC-exclusive badging to elevate facilitator status, and other resources to support your culture transformation efforts.

Best of all, your certification is transferable should you change positions within your company or move to another organization.
